From the Pumerantz Library: National Library Week 2011

Celebrate National Library Week
April 10-16, 2011

The Harriet K. & Philip Pumerantz Library will offer several programs during National Library Week. For more information about National Library Week and to sign up for these programs online, please see the Library Blog.

- Monday, April 11, 5-6 p.m.
  EndNote Beyond the Basics: Cite While You Write and Output Styles
  It is recommended that attendees have prior experience using EndNote for this program, but it is not required. In this program, using Cite While You Write with Microsoft Word will be demonstrated. You will also learn how to customize output styles in EndNote. Facilitated by Alicia Saulpaugh, MLIS

- Tuesday, April 12, 5:30-7 p.m.
  Study Skills for Health Care Students
  In this program, you will learn essential skills to help you study and remember important information. Whether you study from PowerPoint presentations, books, or notes, you will learn pointers to make your studying more effective and time efficient. Facilitated by Nick Blank-Spadoni

- Tuesday, April 12, noon to 1 p.m.
  PowerPoint for Students
  Tired of using the same old boring PowerPoint presentation? Spice it up! In this program, students will learn how to create dynamic presentations with design, animation, hyperlinks, and more. Facilitated by David Peterson

- Wednesday, April 13, 5:30-6:30 p.m.
  Mobile Apps for Medicine
  Handheld devices are commonplace in today’s medical practice. They can be used at the point of care to access information on diagnosis, patient care, and pharmaceutical dosing. In this program, an online tour of the handheld research guide will be given. This tour will expose attendees to the various library resources that offer Mobile Apps and sources for software downloads. Facilitated by Rudy R. Barreras, Reference Librarian

- Thursday, April 14, 5:30-7 p.m.
  How to Write a Better Paper
  Is writing a paper a walk in the park for you? Is figuring out how and where to begin a cinch? Is deciding on organization and structure a piece of cake? Are you a master of revision? Do you have a black belt in editing? Are citations and references your BFFs? No? Then come celebrate National Library Week with a workshop on pain-free paper writing. The workshop will touch on the theoretical underpinnings of academic composition and launch into a discussion of the nuts and bolts of how to write a paper from beginning to end without even considering pulling your hair out.

- Friday, April 15
  Return a currently overdue book to the library on this day and have your fine waived. Sorry, this doesn't apply to previously existing fines.

To see the full list of upcoming workshops, please see the Harriet K. & Philip Pumerantz Library Workshops Guide.